12. Dispute Resolution

Uniting Financial Services has an internal dispute resolution process in place to resolve any complaints or concerns you may have, quickly and fairly. Any complaints or concerns should be directed to the Complaints Handling Officer (by letter, telephone, facsimile) using the address and telephone/fax numbers provided in Section 4 of this FSG.

We will investigate your complaint and within 21 days of receiving your complaint write to you, explaining the outcome of our investigation or advise you that more time is needed to complete the investigation.

Unless there are exceptional circumstances, we will complete our investigation within 45 days of receiving your complaint. If we are unable to resolve your complaint within 45 days, we will write to you and inform you of the reasons for the delay and provide you with monthly updates on the progress of our investigation and an indication of when your complaint is likely to be resolved, except where we are awaiting a response from you and you have been advised that we require such a response.

When we complete our investigation of your complaint, we will notify you in writing of:

- (a) the result;
- (b) the reasons for our decision with reference to any relevant provision of the Terms and Conditions; and
- (c) any further action you can take in respect of your complaint.

If your investment is found to have been incorrectly credited or debited, we will adjust your investment accordingly (including any interest and charges) and notify you in writing of the amount of the adjustment and, if the incorrect crediting relates to a discrepancy between the amount recorded by us as having been deposited and the amount recorded by us having been received, we will also notify you of the difference and the actual amount which has been credited to your investment.

If we find that you are liable for all or part of the disputed transaction, we will supply you with copies of any document or other evidence on which we based our findings, and advise you in writing if there was any system or equipment malfunction at the time of the transaction.

If you are not satisfied with the decision, you may wish to take the matter further. You may for instance, contact the Financial Ombudsman Service [contact details below] an approved external dispute resolution scheme, of which we are a member. You may also make a complaint via the ASIC Info line on 1300 300 630
